

13½ ENMESH Conference

Theme: The future of mental health services research
Date: 30 June 2021
Time: 14-17 (CET)
Webinar on: ZOOM

Programme

14:00-14:15	Bernd Puschner Introduction, welcome and update on ENMESH
14:15-14:45	Sir Graham Thornicroft Impact of Covid-19 for global mental health services research (keynote) Chair: Michael Clark
14:45-15:00	Q&A Chair: Stynke Castelein
15:00-15:10	Break
15:10-15:35	Viviane Kovess-Masfety Dispatching between primary and secondary care: the stepped approach to refocus psychiatric care on people with severe mental illness. France as a case study Chair: Michael Clark
15:35-16:00	Alain Lesage Data, data, data everywhere – the potential of computerized databases of health care utilisation at the individual, programmatic and system level Chair: Stynke Castelein
16:00-16:25	Ilanit Hasson-Ohayon Psychotherapy with people with serious mental illnesses: current trends and potential developments in research Chair: Bernd Puschner
16:25-16:40	Ilanit Hasson-Ohayon & Bernd Puschner Close

Speakers

- Prof Ilanit Hasson-Ohayon, Department of Psychology, Bar-Ilan University, Israel
- Prof Viviane Kovess-Masfety, Institute of Psychology, University of Paris, France
- Prof Alain Lesage, Department of Psychiatry, University of Montreal, Canada
- Prof Sir Graham Thornicroft, Institute of Psychiatry, Psychology and Neuroscience, King's College London, UK

Organisers

- Prof Stynke Castelein, Lentis Research, Lentis Psychiatric Institute / Faculty of Behavioural and Social Sciences, University of Groningen, The Netherlands
- Dr Michael Clark, Personal Social Services Research Unit, London School of Economics and Political Science, UK
- Prof Bernd Puschner, Department of Psychiatry II, Ulm University, Germany